The screenshot shows the 'Inventory Management' application. At the top, there is a menu bar with 'Menu' and 'About'. The 'Menu' dropdown is open, showing options: Home, Employee, Inventory, Finance, Marketing, and Exit. The main interface has a yellow header with the title 'Inventory Management'. Below the header, there is a form with several input fields and dropdown menus: 'Location', 'Church', 'Rent', 'Availability', 'Balance', 'Person incharge', and 'Sales'. To the right of the form is a table with columns: Year, Month, Location, Church, Rent, Availability, Balance, Person i..., and Sales. Below the table, there is a 'Total Sales RM' label and two buttons: 'Cal Sales' and 'Upload'. At the bottom of the application, there is a row of five buttons: 'Add', 'Reset', 'Update', 'Delete', and 'Print'.

The screenshot shows a dialog box titled 'Wedding Rental System' with a close button (X) in the top right corner. The dialog box has a green question mark icon and the text 'Confirm if you want to exit'. Below the text, there are two buttons: 'Yes' and 'No'.

If the user clicks 'Yes' button, the system will close automatically.

If the user clicks 'No' button, it will stay on same page.
